MY CHICAGO

Giuliana Rancic

E! News and Fashion Police co-host and Style Network darling Giuliana Rancic returns to her second city this month to open restaurant RPM Italian in River North (52 W. Illinois St., 312.222.1886), a collaboration with Lettuce Entertain You Enterprises and the Melman heirs. Here's whom else the reality star likes to hang when she's in town. —Elise Hofer

A NIGHT OUT WITH THE GIRLS

"Studio Paris" rooftop lounge (59 W. Hubbard St., parisclubchicago.com) is the perfect place to dress up in something fab and have fun with the girls. The music is always hot, especially when there's a popular DJ in town."

night is when Bill cooks his famous pasta and salmon dishes, and then we top off the night with a long walk. We also love Joe's Seafood, Prime Steak & Stone Crab (60 E. Grand Ave., joes.net) for a great bottle of wine and crab claws."

Shop for Clothes

"I always shop at stores on or around Michigan Avenue. I love Topshop and Zara all the way up to Bloomin's, Tory Burch and Barneys. And I often go to Macy's for its Rachel Roy collection. I wear a ton of her stuff on E! News, Fashion Police and off camera, too."

Grab Brunch

"We've been going to the Original Pancake House (22 E. Bellevue Place, originalpancakehouse.com) as a couple for six years. Bill and I each get the egg white omelet with spinach, mushrooms and onions. They are baked in the oven and come out big and fluffy. Yum!"

Indulge in Something Sweet "Sprinkles Cupcakes (50 E. Walton St., sprinkles.com) on Walton has the best red velvet cupcakes. We have the craziest sweet tooth and this always does the trick."

Work Out

"Bill and I are both members at the Equinox on Michigan Avenue (900 N. Michigan Ave., equinox.com) and East Bank Club (500 N. Kingsbury St., eastbankclub.com). We decide depending on where we are."

Get Cultured

"I pop into the Museum of Contemporary Art (220 E. Chicago Ave., 312.280.2660, mchicago.org) a few times a year. My most memorable experience was viewing the Kara Walker exhibition."

CELEBRITY SPOTTING
